

the elimination of life is a fascist game like shooting pigeons never. I can see that a political crime is always fascist, that when the Left kills it is engaging with fascism and no one else, absolutely no one else, that the elimination of life is a fascist game like shooting pigeons and that it happens between them, between killers. I can see that every crime reveals the essential stupidity of the world, that of force, weapons, and that most populations fear and revere this stupidity as if it were power itself. It's shameful. The child who keeps

Newer

Older

3rd October 2025

With all its gaze the animal sees...

11th September 2025

spare man the effort of living

sonia turcotte © 2022-2025

RSS feed

Made with Montaigne and by anton 